AMISEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATER .- Mr. Grover announces a few more nights of grand opera; this extension having been made for two reasons-one because lovers of opera are loud in their demands for it, and the other because Mr. Grover desires that all the prominent members of the company shall take a benefit. To night Franz Himmer will be the recipient, when will be performed "Stradella," Carl Formes in his great character, "Malvolio" FORD'S THEATER .- Mr. J. S. Clarke, the comedian, commences an engagement here tonight, appearing as "Dromio of Syracuse" in Shakspeare's "Comedy of Errors" and "Cousin Joe" in "Our Country Cousin." Miss Alice Gray and other favorite performers will sustain Mr. Clarke throughout his engagement.

CANTREBURY .- The amusing pantomime, The Village Pedagogue," is announced for to-right and each night this week. M'lle Marietta Ravel will close her engagement here this week. The Ethiopian trio, Mulligan, West and Williams, will perform new and laughable acts, and the whole company will appear in a splendid bill.

FAIRS AND FESTIVALS .- The enjoyable fair and festival which has been in successful operation for some days past at Island Hall under the auspices of the ladles of the Seventh street presbyterian church will be continued throughout the present week. All who have visited the hall express themselves as delighted with the entertainment. The festival at Odd Fellows' Hall under the auspices of the ladies of the Capitol Hill Presbyterian Church, assisted by the ladies of the same denomination connected with the church is also in successful operation and worthy a SHOOTING APPRAY.—On Saturday evening, Lieut P. S. Early, 13th N. Y. cavalry, while intoxicated, walked into Grover's Theater, but not having a ticket, he was refused admission, when he became somewhat disorderly. He, however, procured a half-price ticket and essayed to pass on it, but it was refused, and he attempted to raise a row with the doorkeeper. About this time Lieut. W. H. Terrell, 1st V. R. C., demanded his pass, which he refused to show, at the same time using disrespectful language. Lieut. T. gave orders to Sergt. W. L. Whitney, of the patrol, to take him to the guardhouse, on the charge of being drunk and disorderly, and he was taken in custody, the sergeant taking him down the Avenue, and Lieut. Terrell, who apprehended that there would be trouble, followed them. Several times, in passing saloons, Early attempted to get away from the sergeant, and as they were passing the door of Emrich's Hotel, 11th street, below the Avenue, he suddenly drew his revolver, turned and fired at Lieut. Terrell, the ball passing through his neck, near the jugular vein. Before he had time to fire a second time Sergt. Whitney wrested the pistol from him, and fired one shot at him, and Lieut. Terrell, notwithstanding his severe wound, drew his pistol and fired six shots in rapid succession, three of which took effect. one in the left breast, another in the shoulder blade, and the third in the back, striking the spinal column, and glancing inwardly. Early was secured and taken to the guardhouse, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Keasby, who also attended to Lieut. Terrell's injuries. Early was sent to Stone Hospital, and Lieut. Terrell, who is quite a popular young officer, was conveyed to his quarters at Rush Barracks, near the War Department. The affray created considerable excitement, and in a

OF IMPORTANCE TO FARMERS.—There never was and never will be again such another opportunity for farmers located upon navigable waters to enrich their lands, as that offered by the piles of fine stable manure in this city. It is better for agricultural purposes than any other we ever saw, being made almost exclusively from feeding grain. Its cost, including hauling to the vessel, is about 45 cents per load of say three-fourth of a ton, and vessels transport and land it anywhere around the Chesapeake and its navigable tributaries at about 80 cents per load. The editor of the Star has already used a thousand tons of it with great advantage, and designs using much more this season. So he speaks from experience in thus urging farmers to avail themselves of the opportunity it affords them to fertilize their lands at unusually small expense. Mr. E. Hedge, corner of E and 12th streets, is the party to whom persons wishing loads of it should apply to purchase it, being the agent of the contractors who have purchased the whole from the Government.

SUPREME COURT. IN BANC-Chief Justice Cartter presiding .- On Saturday, the United States agt. Wm. Shields was heard. The property of Shields had been condemned under the confiscation law by the District Court, Judge Wylie, on the ground that he had participated in the rebellion. Shields had, however, returned to Maryland, but had not signified his return to allegiance. The decision of the District Court was appealed from, and the case came up before the court in banc, and in addition to the exceptions an oath of allegiance was filed by the petitioner. The District Attorney argued that this oath did not conform to the President's amnesty proclamation. Mr. Shields amended the petition so as to express that the oath was taken in the spirit of the proclamation, with the object, as far as he was concerned, to restore the authority of the United States.

The Court ordered a restitution. District Attorney Carrington appeared for the Government, and W. S. Cox, Esq., for the claimant.

ORPHANS' COURT, Judge Purcell .- On Sat. urday, John S. Cunningham was appointed guardian to the orphans of Wm. N. B. Brocket, and E. J. Middleton to the orphan of Washington Berry. Letters testamentary were issued to Francis

R. W. Wallace on the estate of Mrs. Mary Key The first account of Margaret W. Handy, ad-ministratrix of Samuel W. Handy, and the second account of John Ehanahan, guardian to the orphans of John Scanlon, were approved and passed. Inventories of the goods, &c., and monies be-

A SPLENDID GRAND PIANO .- There is now on exhibition at the warerooms of W.G. Metzerott, a magnificent Grand Concert Piano, from the manufactory of Steinway & Sons. The brilliancy and power of this instrument is really astonishing. It is equal to a large orchestra in power, whilst in sweetness and delicacy it appears to imitate the human voice. Our principal planists unite in pronouncing it the best piano that has ever been heard in Washington. Its cost is $1,350, and has been purchased by Marshall Brown, Esq., for his

FOR HEARING .- Saturday night, Caroline Reed was arrested by Roundsman Eckloff for keeping a bawdy house. She was the tenant of one room in the house on Sixth street, next to the corner of H, in what is known as Doe's Row. The lady who rented the room says she got possession by false pretences, and Caroline was sent to jail for a hearing by Justice Gi-

CARRY FOR.—Yesterday morning, officer McColgan found a sick boy about fourteen years old, named John Williams, loitering about the streets without home or protection. The case was reported to Mayor Wallach, who gave him a permit to the almshouse. LARCENY .- Geo. Rollins was arrested by Roundsman Kelly, of the Fourth Ward, for stealing tools from various carpenters. The tools were recovered and Rollins was held for a hearing on various charges of petty larceny.

Testimonials.

From the Rev. Fred. S. Jewell, Professor of State Normal School, Albany, N. Y. This may certify that I have been, since 1814 subject to violent periodical attacks of catarrh. marked by a highly inflamed condition of the lining membranes of the cavities of the head, producing a most distressing species of headache for days at a time, wholly incapacitating me from business, and during the paroxysms confining me to the bed. In some instances the inflammation has extended to the teeth, occa-sioning toothache; to the threat, producing hoarseness and partial loss of voice; and and twice it has so affected the left eye as to confine me for a month or more to a darkened room. These attacks have been accompanied by strong febrile symptoms; by stoppage of the head, and, in the first stages, by watery discharges from the nose, subsequently becoming acrid and yellow, and towards the close of the attack becoming bloody and purulent. I have tried medicines of almost every kind; external applications to the head, such as camphor, ginger, hot bandages, and fomentations of hot vinegar; snuffs of some half a dozen kinds, and other catarrhal preparations, together with internal remedies, such as alteratives, cathartics and emetics. These have produced no change in the occurrence or character of the disease, and, in most cases, with little or no temporary relief. I had come, at length, to believe the disease to be practically beyond either cure or material alleviation.

Under these circumstances I was led some five months ago, to make a trial of Dr. Lighthill's treatment. His method at once approved itself to my judgment, as simple, philosophi-cal, and likely to be effective. Notwithstanding the disadvantages under which he labored, in dealing with a disease of such long stand. ing, aggravated by nervous debility and dyspepsia, and constantly induced by the accidents of my professional labor, I found the treatment reaching the disease as it had never been reached before, and producing such a modification and alleviation of its character. as I had supposed impossible. I chronicle the results thus. Although I have been situated several times, so that I should formerly have believed a severe attack of my catarrh inevitable, I have escaped thus far; the symptoms of threatened attack have been very light, and have yielded to the remedies employed by Dr. Lighthill, without need of recourse to the old hot fermentations, or emetics; and the discharges from the head have resumed the original and natural condition. I count upon a complete cure. That I have been able, however, to obtain so material a relief is to me a cause of gratitude. In that alone, I am repaid for whatever the treatment may have cost me.

I make this statement unsolicited, as a means of acknowledging my obligations to Dr. Lighthill's method of treating catarrh, and with a view to aid any who may have suffered from that disease, in forming a just opinion of its merits, and its probable utility in their own FREDK. S. JEWELL, case. Prof. State Normal School.

Albany, N. Y., March 14, 1861. Catarrh Cured.

From Rev. R. P. Russell, Lynn, Mass. I have been much troubled with Catarrh of the worst type for some twenty years. It gradually grew worse, producing cough and hoarseness, destroying the sense of smell, and breaking down my general health to such a degree as to compel me to resign my pastorate, and suspend public speaking.

I made diligent use of the useful remedies, such as snuffs of different kinds, nitrate of silver, tar water, olive tar, and inhalations, but without any salutary effects. Last summer I heard of Dr. Lighthill's successful mode of treating catarrh, visited him, and put myself under his treatment. I began immediately to improve, and this improvement has gone on to the present time. My catarrh has gradually melted away, my cough has disappeared, my voice has become natural, and I am once more able to preach the blessed Gospel. Let me advise all troubled with catarrhal difficulties to apply to Dr. Lighthill.
